

2011 SUMMER EVENTS

Check out our summer events schedule—it promises to be a fun and full summer! All events are open to the public and free.

July 1

Canada Day at the Museum of Natural History. Celebrate Canada Day with the Nature Trust at the Museum of Natural History!

July 23

Pleasant River Canoe Trip. Join Canoe Kayak Nova Scotia and the Nature Trust as we spend the day paddling along the Pleasant River, looking for unique and rare coastal plain flora along the riverbank. Bring your own canoe or kayak, safety equipment, water and lunch. More details to be announced; route may change depending on water levels. Please register with cristi@nsnt.ca or 902.425.5263.

August 6

Crow Neck Conservation Lands Property Celebration. Celebrate the Nature Trust's protection of important habitat for endangered Piping Plovers along Crow Neck beach! We just secured this property and it will now be protected forever. Join us at 10:30am for the official property announcement and celebration, followed by a guided walk with Bird Studies Canada to look for Piping Plovers and other migratory shore birds. We will also do a cleanup of this newly protected property. Bring your own lunch, water, hats, and secure footwear, but please leave your dogs at home for this event! Contact cristi@nsnt.ca or 902.425.5263 to register and get directions.

August 10

Cape Breton Showcase. Join us for an announcement of three Cape Breton conservation successes and enjoy a showcase of our conservation work across the province, and our exciting plans for Cape Breton. Alexander Graham Bell Historic Site, Baddeck, 7pm. Contact robin@nsnt.ca for information.

August 27

Coastal Plain Flora Field Trip. Join us for a guided hike in southwest Nova Scotia to look for unique and rare coastal plain flora. Bring boots, bug spray, water, and lunch. More details to be announced.

September 8

Conservation Announcement. Join Acadia University and the Nature Trust for an exciting conservation celebration. Museum of Natural History, 7pm. Watch our website for details.

September 28

Annual Nature Trust Dinner and Silent Auction. Mark your calendars! We are pleased to invite you to join us for the Nature Trust annual gala dinner and conservation celebration, held at the World Trade and Convention Centre in Halifax. Tickets will be on sale shortly. Stay tuned for details about the evening's entertainment and speakers.
